

CONTENTS | INDICATIVE TIMETABLE

Introduction

Induction - Learners and teachers, and the teaching and learning context

- Learning and teaching contexts
- Learners as individuals
- What do teachers do?

Week 1 - Language analysis and awareness

- Introduction to analyzing language
- Introduction to researching language
- Vocabulary
- Teaching vocabulary
- The sounds of English
- Stress, rhythm, and intonation
- Teaching pronunciation
- Phrases and sentences
- Tense and aspect
- Language functions
- Text and discourse
- Presenting the meaning and form of new grammar items
- Checking the meaning of grammar items
- Practicing new language items
- Providing feedback on learner production
- Teaching language items reactively

Week 2 - Language skills: listening, reading, speaking, and writing

- Focus on listening skills
- Focus on reading skills
- Focus on speaking skills
- Focus on writing skills
- Teaching basic literacy
- Integrating skills

Week 3 - Planning and resources for different teaching contexts

- Lesson planning: defining aims
- Lesson planning: lesson design and staging
- Lesson planning: planning beyond the single lesson
- The online classroom v the face-to-face classroom
- Choosing and using teaching resources
- Teaching with limited resources
- Using educational technology

Week 4 - Developing teaching skills and professionalism

- Organizing and managing a class
- Managing an activity
- Teaching young learners and teenagers
- Teaching at different levels
- Maintaining learner motivation
- Introduction to assessment
- Developing as a teacher
- Preparing for the workplace