

Contents | Indicative Timetable

Introduction

Induction – Learners and teachers, and the teaching and learning context

- 1 Learning and teaching contexts
- 2 Learners as individuals
- 3 What do teachers do?

Week 1 – Language analysis and awareness

- 4 Introduction to analysing language
- 5 Introduction to researching language
- 6 Vocabulary
- 7 Teaching vocabulary
- 8 The sounds of English
- 9 Stress, rhythm and intonation
- 10 Teaching pronunciation
- 11 Phrases and sentences
- 12 Tense and aspect
- 13 Language functions
- 14 Text and discourse
- 15 Presenting the meaning and form of new grammar items
- 16 Checking the meaning of grammar items
- 17 Practising new language items
- 18 Providing feedback on learner production
- 19 Teaching language items reactively

Week 2 – Language skills: listening, reading, speaking and writing

- 20 Focus on listening skills
- 21 Focus on reading skills
- 22 Focus on speaking skills
- 23 Focus on writing skills
- 24 Teaching basic literacy
- 25 Integrating skills

Week 3 – Planning and resources for different teaching contexts

- 26 Lesson planning: defining aims
- 27 Lesson planning: lesson design and staging
- 28 Lesson planning: planning beyond the single lesson
- 29 The online classroom v the face-to-face classroom
- 30 Choosing and using teaching resources
- 31 Teaching with limited resources
- 32 Using educational technology

Week 4 – Developing teaching skills and professionalism

- 33 Organizing and managing a class
- 34 Managing an activity
- 35 Teaching young learners and teenagers
- 36 Teaching at different levels
- 37 Maintaining learner motivation
- 38 Introduction to assessment
- 39 Developing as a teacher
- 40 Preparing for the workplace